Dear Ms. Palmieri:

The 2010 RI field data collection effort that Bureau of Land Management – Alaska (BLM) planned for the Red Devil Mine Site was reduced to a limited sampling effort due to the limited extent of the remaining field season. The scope and technical approach to the limited sampling effort were discussed between the EPA, ADEC, BLM and E&E during two conference calls, held on September 1 and September 9 respectively. The ADEC provided verbal comments during the September 1 call. Additional comments were provided via email on September 9, and were discussed during the conference call held that day. Responses to both sets of comments are enclosed. The responses reflect the discussion during the September 1 and September 9 calls.

Please call me at 907-271-4426 if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

/s/

Mike McCrum
Red Devil Project Manager
